Beyond the nothern mountains, and even farther
there is a fertile town of gracefully dancing cranes, they say...

Located in the midst of Tsugaru Area, this town is said to be blessed with plentiful crops like apples, rice and winter grapes.

Venerable men of shiny heads inhabit this town smiling happily, day in, day out.
They say, this town has now arrived here in Edo - shouldering all its delicacies, delights and beauty!

Now come on over and take a look! Let the banquet begin!
